

sound planetarium

Confidential information - all copy rights reserved

TRAINING MODULE C

Module C is both a practical and intellectual training and is conducted at the Kathmandu Sound Planetarium venue near the Great Boudhanath Stupa.

It implies that participants live in Nepal for several weeks or months.

Module C addresses the needs of experienced sound therapists utilizing SoundPlanetarium treatments that wish to engage into conducting courses of their own.

Module C is mostly conducted for single individuals and is tailored to the Master trainee needs in 2 separate levels.

Module C1:

Intellectual topics include -

- Motivation of a Module A Teacher - Being a Master (Meditation). Making sure that I know!
- Participation in at least 5 trainings on Module A including taking leading roles on practical as well as intellectual topics.
- 'What does it need to run a sound therapy praxis' Development of an own successful praxis - including topics on motivation, motivation development, as well as business related topics such as PR, web presentation, marketing and economics.
- Deepened studies on the astromedical concepts of Paracelsus that includes research and treatment development for various conditions in collaboration and guidance of the SoundPlanetarium trainers.

Practical topics include -

- Application of known SP treatments as well as new research treatments.
- Development of handout materials for own courses.
- Business Plan development for own praxis.
- Conclusion- Getting ready to go! - a SoundPlanetarium family plan for Module A teachers

Module C2:

Intellectual topics include -

- Motivation of a Mod B Teacher - Mastering being a Master (Meditation). Making sure that I know!
- Participation in at least 4 trainings on Module B including taking leading roles on practical as well as intellectual topics.
- 'What does it need to upgrade your own sound therapy praxis'. Situation specific consultations with SoundPlanetarium teachers.
- Deepened studies on the astromedical concepts of Paracelsus that includes research and treatment developments for various conditions in collaboration and guidance of the SoundPlanetarium trainers.
- Development of a research paper under the guidance of SoundPlanetarium.

Practical topics include -

- Application of known SP treatments as well as new research treatments.
- Development of handout materials for own courses.
- Business Plan development for own praxis.
- Conclusion- Getting ready to go- a SoundPlanetarium family plan for Module B teachers

